INTRODUCTION

---

We are delighted to announce that, for the second year in a row, we have been awarded the AA Notable Wine List, one of only 217 establishments to hold such an accolade in the UK.

Our wine list is a bespoke collection of luxurious and individual wines, echoing the romantic sense of travel that can be seen throughout the hotel, inspired by owners David and Charlotte Reilly. The array of wines selected is designed to complement and enhance the imaginative cuisine created by our award winning kitchen team, who select only the best, seasonal produce from local suppliers.

In 2014 we introduced a Verre-de-Vin system to offer our guests a taste of some of our more luxurious wines from the cellar. All members of the team share our passion for wine and would be happy to help you in the decision making process.

Look out for our favorites along the way!

LAURENT PERRIER

Both Laurent Perrier & Yorebridge House are family owned businesses for whom quality is the overriding passion and focus. We have drawn up exciting plans together for 2016 and beyond, to include a Grand Siècle Cellar for hosting tastings and intimate dinners and The Alexandra Suite – an exclusive, decadent and private bolt hole in the grounds of Yorebridge House. This will be the first and only suite in the UK named after the Alexandra Rose.

LAURENT PERRIER

	175ml	BOTTLE

96. Krug Grand Cuvee, Reims

Totally awesome - unlike any other champagne as it's matured in wooden barrels -Krug regard their non-vintage Grand Cuvee as their top wine, incorporating the best wines available to maintain the unique house style. Fermented in old Argonne oak barriques (unusual for Champagne) and aged for longer than many houses' vintage wines, the style is rich, with noticeable autolytic, yeast aromas, nuts, dried fruits and toast, yet with great finesse and complexity.

97. Krug Vintage, Reims

The 1995 vintage Krug shows today its immense potential, with a smoky, lemony fruit character and hints of brioche, mineral, ripe white fruits and honey. On the palate the wine is majestic and full, while retaining crisp acidity and vibrant length. A very rich and luxurious Krug.

98. S'Salon Blanc de Blancs, Le Mesnil-sur-Oger

1997

£400

A very pale yellow with barely green hints and a lively but discreet nose, the 1999 Salon has a youthful grace that captures the palate, firm and textured. Brioche, white bread, white blossom, white fruit and bitter almond flavors are still developing. The middle palate is crystalline and it has a lingering finish with hints of citrus.

99. Alexandra Grand Cuvée Rose, Laurent Perrier

2004

£450

A Never Ending Passion

It is named after a woman: Alexandra. In 1982, Bernard de Nonancourt created an outstanding cuvée of vintage rosé champagne – the perfect expression of his driving passion, and the fruit of his great experience. Exceptionally, the new cuvée epitomised every aspect of the champagne maker's art: Laurent-Perrier's unique know-how, careful tending of the vineyards, ceaseless dedication, the best of the natural world, and the best crus in Champagne at the peak of perfect ripeness. Conditions such as these come together only in the greatest years.

In 1987, after five years of unhurried ageing in the chalk cellars of Tourssur-Marne, the wine had reached perfection. That same year, Alexandra, Bernard de Nonancourt's elder daughter, was to marry. The cuvée could only be named for one of the two daughters, and the upcoming family event dictated the choice: Alexandra.

To this day, Bernard de Nonancourt's original vision continues to stimulate the excellence deployed by the entire House during the creation of this great cuvée. It stands as the symbol of an infinite passion for wine, and the signature of a style and a spirit unrivalled in Champagne.
